

JACIE: A Brief History, Achievements, and Lessons Learned

Jon B. Christopherson¹

1) jonchris@contractor.usgs.gov, USGS

Abstract

The Joint Agency Commercial Imagery Evaluation (JACIE) multi-agency partnership was formed in 2000 to evaluate the quality and fitness for use of satellite imagery developed by Space Imaging's IKONOS and other new sources of commercial satellite imagery. This presentation will discuss the history and ongoing activities of the JACIE effort, summaries of accomplishments from JACIE, and some lessons learned along the way.

Keywords - Plenary